THE CAR WORKS.

Ald. Hunt said a telegram had just been received from Mr. Hickson, General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, stating that he would receive a deputation from the City Council at Montreal on Thursday next. He presumed it was in connection with the Car Works, and it was important that action should be taken.

Upon motion of Ald. Hunt, seconded by Ald. Hewitt, Mayor Hyman and Ald. Birrell were appointed a deputation to wait upon General Manager Hickson at Montreal on Thursday.

A communication was read from J. B. Simpson, asking for the use of the City Hall on the evenings of October 27th and 28th for two lectures by Mr. Charles Watts.

On motion of Ald. Stringer, seconded by Ald. Hewitt, the matter was referred to No. 2 Committee with power.

Council adjourned for three weeks.
